QUEEN CITY JAZZ BAND 7:30 p.m. | Friday, October 6, 2023

The opening concert of the 31st season features an all-time favorite of our South-Metro audience. Since 1958 the QCJB has been thrilling audiences with the great sounds of the jazz era, including the styles of Louis Armstrong, Jelly Roll Morton, King Oliver and Ma Rainey. Come early to get a seat and hear one of the most recognized traditional jazz bands in the U.S. Free admission.

COLORADO BRASS 7:30 p.m. | Friday, November 17, 2023

The thirty musicians of Colorado's premiere British-style brass band will perform To the Stars – the same concert they will perform at the US Masters Brass Band Championships in Kansas City this year. Come hear this award-winning group play a variety of pieces inspired by the heavens – from marches to contemporary masterworks. Free admission.

Four of the finest musicians in our region will perform rare Romantic works for piano quartet in this special matinee concert for our Littleton audience. ARTS & FAITH SERIES The finest of sacred music and art

A FESTIVAL OF CAROLS 8:30 & 11:00 a.m. | Sunday, December 10, 2023

The choirs of Littleton UMC will be joined by the Colorado Chamber Orchestra for a festive Advent service. Come lift your voice on traditional Christmas carols and celebrate the coming of the Christ child during a service that will raise your spirits like no other this holiday season.

LANDRY'S THE PASSION 7:30 p.m. | Maundy Thursday, March 28, 2024

This Holy Week service will move dramatically from an observance of the Last Supper through Christ's betrayal, sentencing, and crucifixion as depicted in the music of composer Mark Lewis Landry. The Chancel Choir performed the Colorado premiere of the piece in 2022 as a part of a traditional Service of Darkness. This moving service will set a starkly contrasting tone to the joy of Easter morning.

ARTS FESTIVAL WEEKEND PSALMS CONCERT Saturday, April 27 – Sunday, April 28, 2024

The 31st annual LUMC Arts Show will be open throughout the weekend around a series of special events. The community art show will open on Saturday, before a series of lectures on the artistry of the Psalms. Sunday will include music commissioned by the Fine Arts Series in worship, and a closing concert of inspiring settings of Psalms by master composers, including Mozart, Haydn, Palestrina, Bernstein and more.
